

INVENTORY AND PLANNING GUIDE

A GIFT FROM THE
RELIGIOUS OF THE SACRED
HEART OF MARY

AN INVENTORY BOOKLET

For Your Important Estate Planning Information

Provide your family and loved ones with a one-stop guide that can help identify and locate all your important documents when it comes time to settle your affairs. Once you have completed this guide, give a copy to your executor and attorney, keep the original with your other important papers, and update it at least every two to three years. If you are married, have your spouse complete his or her own separate guide.

Power of Attorney

A power of attorney allows someone to act on your behalf in the event that you are unable to do so. For example, you could be on an extended vacation or affected by a temporary medical condition. The power of attorney allows the holder of the power to transact business, including buying, selling, and gathering assets; discharging debts; and handling real estate.

Health Care Power of Attorney/Living Will

A power of attorney for health care designates a person to make health care decisions if you are unable to do so, and sets down guidelines for levels of treatment and life sustaining devices. It may also be accompanied by a living will, directing whether life sustaining procedures should be used to prolong life when it's medically determined that no hope of recovery remains.

Consider a Memorial Gift

The passing of someone close to you is rightfully a time for remembrance, reflection, and recognition. Many people search for ways to commemorate the life of a husband, wife, dear friend, or family member—to make a lasting statement about what that person meant to them.

You can make a gift that will stand as a memorial to a loved one and at the same time advance our mission in a meaningful way. It is hard to imagine a more thoughtful, satisfying plan. How you decide to honor this special person is up to you. Possibilities include immediate gifts, bequests from wills or living trusts, and gifts from which you or family members keep lifetime benefits.

Friends who include the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary in their estate plans enjoy the quiet satisfaction of helping us continue the mission of providing valuable care for our Sisters and ministries.

Please consider:

- Naming us in your will or living trusts
- Naming us as a full or partial beneficiary of your life insurance
- Naming us as a full or partial beneficiary of a retirement account, IRA, CD, or bank account

Your financial advisor or estate planner can assist you with the tax benefits you may also be able to take advantage of with a planned gift. We would be pleased to discuss with you the many ways you can contribute to a better future for the RSHM ministries and Sisters.
